MCW LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

New Site Offers Program Information, News Updates and Upcoming Event Details

NEW YORK, New York, August 28, 2012 – MCW (Miracle Corners of the World) launched a new organizational website – www.mcwglobal.org – a one stop shop for visitors to learn about the twelve-year non-profit organization.

The site will increase awareness of MCW's annual events, share information about MCW's activities worldwide and provide details on how to support and get involved. It also features MCW news items, with easy and direct access to our newsletters, press releases and coverage in the media.

MCW's website also offers a place to get connected to MCW team members and program participants as well as for MCW supporters to communicate directly with each other via MCW's social media sites, including Facebook, Twitter and YouTube.

Ilan Magen, a New York-based website developer and designer, was responsible for the new design, working closely with the MCW team to enhance the site's usability and navigation.
